Hospital Falls Before Greenville

First Defeat for the State Institution's Nine—Norwich Town Wins from Centrals—Academy Loses in Opening Game on Gridiron, 14 to 0.

Norwich Town	4	2	.667
Greenville	2	4	.333

Upsets were the rule in the City league games this week, as the State Hospital team was defeated for the first time in the league season. Greenville doing the trick, and the Norwich Town team won its game at Sachem park against the Centrals after the latter had apparently staved the game away in the eighth. As a result of the games Norwich Town pulled up into a tie for second place with the Centrals, and Greenville bettered its standing, at the same time giving Manager Bowen the satisfaction of being the first to trim the league leaders.

Greenville 7, Hospital 1.

On the Hospital grounds Saturday afternoon the State Hospital team just escaped a shutout at the hands of Pitcher McLaughlin of Greenville, the score standing Greenville 7, Hospital 1, at the end of nine innings. The Greenies were in the best of form, holding the Hospital hitters to two scratch singles for five innings, after which Bill Austin peeled off a clean hit in the sixth and Harrington got one in the ninth.

WILLAMANTIC GREX CLUB STARTING BASKETBALL

Good Nucleus of Old Players—Want Games with Eastern Connecticut Teams.

The Grex club of the First Congregational church of Willimantic has organized for the winter and will commence athletic activities at once with the call for candidates for the club's basketball five being issued immediately. Practice will be held this week and right along until the season opens. There is a good nucleus still in the club from last year's great five who will try for positions on the quintette this season. Among those still available are Richmond, Leonard, Morse, Mott and Harrington, with several new men who will make a strong try for the team.

150 Pound Canadian Wrestler Wants Opponent.

Eugene Lamotte, who styles himself the 150 pound champion wrestler of Canada, writes the Sporting Editor of the Bulletin from Montreal that he is starting on a tour of the United States and wants to set on a match with a fast man for a side bet. The Canadian can be reached at Worcester postoffice, as he is on his way south.

Four Pitchers at Sachem Park.

Fine weather favored the game at Sachem park, and the good sized crowd on hand witnessed an exciting nine inning contest between the Centrals and Norwich Town, in which Manager George Casey's Norwich boys proved their ginger by snatching the game away in the ninth inning, 8 to 6. The Centrals showed an equal fighting spirit, for they took the lead in the eighth, 6 to 5, by overcoming a handling of five runs which started them in the face all the way through the game. The desperate fight at the end roused the crowd to enthusiasm, and the two teams were cheered on to their best efforts.

Jack Gallivan, who had played football the day before, took up the pitching role for the Centrals at the beginning of the game, but the two sports apparently did not mix well, for his first four men made hits off Jack, and he retired in favor of Simcox in the fifth inning, after Tom Casey had doubled and three runs had scored. Simcox went in, and two more hits produced two more runs before the side was retired.

Simmy performed in fine shape until the ninth, when he started by passing the throw to Casey, who was caught on Kane's error, and Tom Casey brought in the tying run with a single. Simcox was then hoisted to the outfield to allow Bill Austin to take up the fighting, but Bill forced a run in the ninth, and the game was over. The game was a close one, and the two teams were cheered on to their best efforts.
